我國自2016年推動「新南向政策」，已由願景層次和決策方向設計，進入實際運作的階段。對應實施已有5年的中共「一帶一路」倡議，在帶路戰略中全力開墾東協市場，以經濟合作與發展計劃，正在逐步展開其擴大勢力版圖；因此，在加強政府南向戰略的氛圍下，「新南向政策」的成果更是與中共的對話籌碼。本文以國家安全戰略觀點，置身於中共「一帶一路」戰略環境之下，「新南向政策」除了由經貿面向的分析，更應從世界市場視野的脈絡中思考，建構國家安全層級的論述。本文認為站在國家安全戰略層級的思考，應在兩岸關係穩定的基礎上，建構「新南向政策」的思路與格局；本文提出在經貿議題上：「新南向政策」是應具有更高的戰略目標；在兩岸議題上：鏈結中共「一帶一路」倡議，務實的思考「兩岸合作南向」；在區域安全議題上：爭取區域合作組織。期望南向新政由落實經貿政策，達成建立互惠互利目標，進而運用與東南亞各國的實質關係，尋求軍事合作的機會，建構「新南向政策」更高層級的國家安全觀。

Why is Africa Lagging Behind in Economic Development? A Critical Review

Mahamat K. Dodo

Center of Excellence Institute of European Studies University of California, Berkeley

Abstract:

The majority of African countries have passed the threshold of fifty years of Independence. Yet, the majority of them, save the Republic of South Africa, and a few ones here and there, are still struggling to develop the basic social and physical structures and infrastructures that can put them on the path of development and modernity. Against this backdrop, countless development theories and arguments have been proposed about why Africa is not developed and still is poor despite being the second largest continent and by far one of the richest ones there is. As a result, development has become an elusive quest and challenge for generations of African leaders and their frustrated populations. This paper is set to explore why Africa is not developing and shed light on other arguments that are overlooked when analyzing or debating why African countries are lagging behind in their socio-economic development quest. The paper intends to answer those questions in an interdisciplinary manner and touches upon social, cultural, religious, political, economical, and international relations factors. For, to understand Africa's economic problems, one has got to go beyond the mere economic indicators such as the GDP and GNP and bring to the fore other non-economic factors that are hampering Africa's development.

Deterring North Korea from Using WMD in Future Conflicts and Crises

Bruce W. Bennett

For nearly 60 years, North Korea has determinedly pursued the development of weapons of mass destruction (WMD), usually defined as chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear (CBRN) weapons. In recent years, it has used its nuclear weapons to deter threats and to coerce its neighbors during crisis. As the North Korean regime continues to suffer many failures, it may someday lash out and cause a major war in northeast Asia, or its government may collapse into civil war and anarchy. With almost no chance of winning a conflict limited to conventional weapons and having invested so much of their limited resources in WMD, North Korea's leaders are likely to use these weapons in conflicts or further crises. North Korean WMD could cause immense damage to the populations and economies in northeast Asia, potentially destabilizing the region for many years.

It is therefore incumbent on the United States and its allies to develop

Abstract

The Obama administration's 2010 Nuclear Posture Review (NPR) represented a significant departure from previous reviews. It explicitly included the goal of "global zero," added nuclear security to the scope of the review, declared a negative security assurance with fewer exceptions than any previous administration, and reduced the role of nuclear weapons to a narrow range of contingencies. It is essential for the Trump administration to follow its predecessor and live up to US obligations under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty by recommitting to global zero as a long-term goal. At the moment, concerns of allies are still overriding the chances of a posture that would further limit the role of nuclear weapons by implementing a "sole purpose" posture or a "no-first-use" declaration. But these policies should remain long-term goals, and the administration should continue to work to create the conditions for im-

A photograph of a modern dining table and chairs in a bright room. The table is made of dark wood and has four legs. There are several white plastic chairs with wooden legs and a black wire mesh backrest. On the table, there is a glass of pens and a small white card. The room has a large window in the background, a white radiator, and a light-colored wooden floor. A teal square is in the bottom left corner.
